The airfare for this trip is part of Viking's Air Promotion. While this special rate helps save around $700 per person, please note that the entire group might not travel on the same flights.

To increase the chances of the group staying together, we've added the Air Plus option to our reservations. However, this still does not guarantee group travel on the same flights.

Our primary goal is always to offer you the best pricing for any tour we take, which is why we have chosen this air promotion. Rest assured, we will do our utmost to keep as many of the group members together as possible.

This pricing does not include transportation to Portland.
